

Engaging in COP27: A Training For Indigenous Peoples

Thursday, 27 October

10 am – 1 pm EST

The following presentations will take place, with an opportunity for questions and discussion on each topic:

- ▶ History of Indigenous Peoples' Engagement and Opportunities to Engage in the UNFCCC: Andrea Carmen, Executive Director, International Indian Treaty Council and former Co-Chair, Facilitative Working Group of the Local Community and Indigenous Peoples Platform
- ▶ Entry Points into UNFCCC Negotiations and Agenda for COP27: Graeme Reed, Co-chair, International Indigenous Peoples Forum on Climate Change; Climate Adviser, Assembly of First Nations, Canada
- ▶ Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs) and COP27 101: Sameera Savarala, Programme Specialist, NDCs and Negotiations, UNDP Climate Promise
- ▶ Closing remarks: Rochelle Diver, International Indian Treaty Council

Simultaneous interpretation available in Spanish, French, Portuguese

REGISTER: bit.ly/IPTrainingCOP27

Organized by:

