

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' HUMAN RIGHTS & CLIMATE CHANGE

RSVP*
bit.ly/hreusa-taas2022

October 24, 2022

7pm–9pm ET
Virtual Zoom Session

This session will explore Indigenous Peoples' and environmental rights as human rights.

Indigenous leaders from the International Indian Treaty Council (IITC) will share current initiatives in policy, advocacy, education, and practice. IITC will be honored with the first 2022 Human Rights Educators USA Impact Award.

Speakers and Facilitators

Lisa Bellanger
Board member, International Indian Treaty Council and District American Indian Specialist, St. Paul Schools, Minnesota

Andrea Carmen
Executive Director, the International Indian Treaty Council

William Means
A Founder and Board member, the International Indian Treaty Council

IITC was founded on the Standing Rock Reservation in South Dakota in 1974 to be an international voice and advocate for the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. In 1977 IITC was the first Indigenous Peoples organization to receive Consultative Status from the UN Economic and Social Council and in 2011 it was the first to be upgraded to "General Consultative Status."

This event is part of the Training As Action Series. You can find it in the tickets section free of charge.*